What we love

- Unique design, the architecture of the villa is contemporary and minimalistic, blending perfectly well into the unspoiled surrounding landscape. The added bonus of being completely secluded.
- The spectacular views which can be enjoyed from the comfort of your beautiful private pool. In honesty the photos don't do it justice.
- There are five outdoor terraces, choosing which one from which to enjoy your evening drink on after a long day of sightseeing will be the toughest decision of the holiday!
- Villa Searock's location in Apokoronas, means it's perfect to explore Chania, Rethymnon and the south of the island.

What you should know...

- Those travelling with younger children should ensure they are not left to explore the gardens and secluded creek unsupervised
- While the villa has a rare and special location, a car will be needed in order to reach local amenities, beaches & explore the area.
- The villa dominates a gorge leading to a totally secluded creek, this is not accessible to the public. It is only accessible from the plot of the villa, but through a path that is off property limits. Access to the gorge is at own risk and not recommended to anyone without off-path hiking experience
