Location & Local Information

Situated 8km from Omis and 20km from Split, Tugare is a beautiful area comprised of many small hamlets nestled between two branches of the spectacular Mosor Mountains. The location is a perfect choice for those wanting a peaceful holiday surrounded by nature, yet also some great activities, as the area also offers some fantastic sporting opportunities including climbing, hiking and bouldering.

The village itself contains a small selection of shops so you will be able to pick up your basics just down the road. However you will likely want to visit the larger town of Omis a short drive away, to access a wider range of amenities. There is also a charming stretch of coves only 6km away, stretching along the Omis Riviera, that benefit from shallow sandy beaches, ideal for families in their calm crystal clear waters and sheltered surroundings.

The old pirate town of Omis will provide a good selection of nightlife, a large shopping centre and an array of sporting activities from rafting to canyoning. The Venetian fortress that looks out over the town from the hillside and a 17th Century parish church are charming landmarks worth a visit. There are also opportunities here to arrange day trips to neighbouring Islands, the National Parks of Krka and Pritvice, and the beautiful city of Dubrovnik.

For a lovely day trip, head towards the coast, at the foot of the Mosnjica Mountains, and you'll find the old town of Ducé, and a cluster of other villages of preserved stone houses, quant little streets, charming old squares around historic churches. All surrounded by lush vegetation and magnificent views of the Adriatic Sea and the impressive Islands that dot the horizon.
