Villa Happy is in an area of natural beauty, and Sannat is the gateway to the Ta' Cenc plateau and Cliffs which is Gozo's primary birding site. The tiny village has mini market to pick up essentials and a handful of restaurants and bars where you can watch the world go by.

Gozo is a historical mystical Island with dramatic scenery which is believed to have been the Isle of Calypso in Homer's Odyssey.

The property is a short drive from the historical capital city of Victoria and rising above it, the Citadel, which is visible from almost all the island. The ancient fortified town has witnessed many historical moments yet has stood the test of time and is rich in history with the magnificent baroque Cathedral of Gozo, dungeons, battlements and museums to visit. Set on one of the most central hilltops on the island you will find amazing views in all directions.

Victoria has plenty of bars and restaurants to choose from and is home to Gozo's only shopping Mall. There is a daily bustling market. Don't leave Victoria without sampling pastizzi, Malta's best-loved snack!

Gozo is blessed with some beautiful sandy beaches, many still undeveloped, and is surrounded by some of the cleanest waters in the Mediterranean. Ramla Bay is the largest beach on the Island, Nestled amongst unspoilt countryside with a dramatic coastline, the long, wide beach has a reddish hue next to shallow clear waters and is a glorious place to swim, snorkel, play games or just laze in the sun.

Dwejra Bay is only a short drive away and is a magical place with its dramatic coastal formations and sea spilling over the rocks. It's an enthralling experience to swim in the stunning deep sea of the bay, or in the foamy waters around the Blue Hole which is a world renowned diving site. Other attractions at the bay are Fungus Rock, a 60-metre-high rock feature!

Foodies will be happy as Gozo offers some of the best restaurants of the Maltese Islands. There are wonderful seafood restaurants in Xlendi Bay and Mgarr Harbour is the place to sample fine dining.

A delightful way to sample local cuisine and wines is to visit Ta'Mena in Xaghra. Ta'Mena produces DOK wines, virgin olive oil, sweet tomato paste,
