Location & Local Information

Situated in the heart of the world-renowned Courchevel 1850, Apartment Hourglass enjoys an enviable location within one of the most prestigious ski resorts in the French Alps. This alpine gem is not just a place to stay; it's a gateway to a winter wonderland filled with sporting facilities, attractions, and amenities that cater to every taste and interest.

Courchevel 1850 is synonymous with world-class skiing, and this apartment places you at the epicentre of it all. With direct access to the world's largest ski area, Les Trois Vallées, you're surrounded by over 600 kilometres of meticulously groomed slopes, providing endless opportunities for skiers and snowboarders of all levels. The apartment's ski locker ensures your equipment is always at hand, and the proximity of the slopes means you can easily ski in and ski out.

Beyond the thrill of the slopes, Courchevel 1850 offers a wealth of activities. For those with a penchant for winter sports, there's snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, and ice skating. The region's extensive network of trails is perfect for those who prefer exploring the snow-covered landscape on foot. At the same time, snowmobile tours and paragliding adventures allow you to take in the breathtaking mountain views from new heights.

For the non-skiers or those looking to unwind after a day on the slopes, Courchevel 1850 is a winter wonderland in itself. The charming Alpine village is filled with upscale boutiques, Michelin-starred restaurants, and cosy apres-ski bars. Afternoons can be spent strolling through the picturesque streets, enjoying the vibrant atmosphere, and indulging in culinary delights. The apartment's proximity to the village centre means you're just a short walk away from these enticing options.

Courchevel also boasts a world-class aquatic centre, Aquamation, which includes swimming pools, a wellness area, and even an indoor surfing wave. The centre is perfect for relaxation or for keeping the little ones entertained.
