Location & Local Information

Villa Alanna has everything you need right on your doorstep! Sumpetar, a charming coastal village in Croatia, offers visitors a delightful mix of activities and sights. Nestled along the Adriatic Sea, Sumpetar is renowned for its picturesque beaches and crystal-clear waters, perfect for swimming, sunbathing, and water sports like kayaking and paddleboarding. The peaceful pebble beaches and secluded coves provide an idyllic setting for relaxation and enjoying the Mediterranean sun, and are under a ten-minute walk away!

For those interested in exploring beyond the beach, Sumpetar is ideally located near several historical and cultural attractions. Under an hours drive takes you to the ancient city of Split, where you can wander through the iconic Diocletian's Palace and the bustling markets of the old town. The nearby town of Omiš offers thrilling outdoor adventures such as zip-lining over the Cetina River and rafting through its stunning canyon.
