Location & Local Information

Villa Boutique Jave is located in an attractive residential neighbourhood only 10km south-east of the heart of Javea's charming old town. Almost equidistant between Valencia and Alicante, this is a stunning part of the northern Costa Blanca where you can experience the region's natural beauty and glorious beaches alongside historic seaside towns.

Walk to the top of the road and you will come across a hiking path leading to one of the area's most stunning viewpoints with gorgeous vistas of the glistening Mediterranean below – it is especially idyllic at sunrise. There are other outlook points within a short drive as well as pretty rocky bays. Cala del Portixol, around 5km away, is perfect for snorkelling and kayaking (head there early in the summer months as it can get very busy) whilst Playa de la Granadella, just over 10 minutes by car, is another picturesque spot for kayaking. Family-friendly Playa Arenal (8km) is a sandy beach popular with windsurfing enthusiasts and backed by a lovely promenade with summer restaurants.

Javea's old town is set inland from the sea, an enchanting place to spend time as you explore its historic lanes always admiring its medieval heritage and charm. Stock up on delicious regional food at the indoor market, open daily except Sundays, and soak up the ambience of the Thursday morning outdoor market at the main square.

Food lovers will also adore the array of restaurants by the coast whether you are yearning for relaxed family lunches with good views or gastronomic dining (Tula Restaurante has earned a Michelin star, for example). Boat trips depart the marina – catamarans tour the coves with opportunities to swim, ferries whisk you away to Denia or there are sunset sailings along the coast.
